Dear Harold,

November 9, 1966

Many thanks for the autographed copy of your book. I read it with considerable interest and commented at great length on the air. I hav e since directed all response to you in Hyattstown, so perhaps we have done you some good.

Heard some of your friends on Long John's program f rom New York the other evening. They said they had been speaking with you in Washington only the night before.

If ever you plan to be in Hartford, please let me know ahead of time, so that I can schedule you for an entire evening.

Sincerely,

Mike
